

Rudolph Hardin

July 9, 2024

Rudolph was found at our front door on Christmas Eve morning 17 years ago, since I, being the child I was, had asked Santa for a puppy, this just had to be it! My Christmas puppy I had asked for! In actuality, our neighbors daughter dragged him home from a bad situation and he escaped their house to come sit at my front porch to be mine, so mine he was for 17 amazing years. 17 years of fetch, bringing the mail in for a piece of cheese, all the walks we took to the lake, all the car rides. For 17 years he was my best friend, my protector, my companion and I don't remember life before him and I don't want to know life after him. but I wouldn't change a thing, because all the years of love I got with you was worth the pain of loosing you.

I'll miss you Roo, my Roosy, more than anything. There is just so many reminders of you all around, your food bowl sitting on the bottom step of our front porch, your water bucket by the garage, the path you have made all the way around the house in the grass from patrolling and walking it, your dog bed laying in the living room, you are everywhere and all around me. Oh how I love you Roosy. You were there for all of it, kindergarten, elementary, middle school, high school, proms, homecomings, christmases, birthdays, even moving into a dorm, and all the way through my first year of college, I grew up with you and you grew up with me. You saw all the big stuff Roo. I'm so glad I got to call you mine, thank you for 17 years of companionship and love. I'll love you forever and ever bud-bud - with love, Olivia

Tribute Wall

OH

“ Rudolph was found at our front door on Christmas Eve morning 17 years ago, since I, being the child I was, had asked Santa for a puppy, this just had to be it! My Christmas puppy I had asked for! In actuality, our neighbors daughter dragged him home from a bad situation and he escaped their house to come sit at my front porch to be mine, so mine he was for 17 amazing years. 17 years of fetch, bringing the mail in for a piece of cheese, all the walks we took to the lake, all the car rides. For 17 years he was my best friend, my protector, my companion and I don't remember life before him and I don't want to know life after him. but I wouldn't change a thing, because all the years of love I got with you was worth the pain of loosing you.

I'll miss you Roo, my Roosy, more than anything. There is just so many reminders of you all around, your food bowl sitting on the bottom step of our front porch, your water bucket by the garage, the path you have made all the way around the house in the grass from patrolling and walking it, your dog bed laying in the living room, you are everywhere and all around me. Oh how I love you Roosy. You were there for all of it, kindergarten, elementary, middle school, high school, proms, homecomings, christmas, birthdays, even moving into a dorm, and all the way through my first year of college, I grew up with you and you grew up with me. You saw all the big stuff Roo. I'm so glad I got to call you mine, thank you for 17 years of companionship and love. I'll love you forever and ever bud-bud ❤️ - with love, Olivia

Olivia Hardin - July 13, 2024 at 02:28 PM

Aww such sweet memories.. he will always be with you 🥺

Jennifer Murray - July 24, 2024 at 10:10 PM