“ This is Lesley, Sailors Mom for the last 18 years. Sailor I love you so very much and you were honestly a true “Mama’s Best Boy”. You are the most sweetest and most special kitty that I could have ever asked for. From the moment I saw you on the internet Pet Finder way back in 2003 I knew you were the one for me. I’m so happy that I did not pass up the chance to adopt you. You honestly made my heart melt and you were the most beautiful kitten I had ever seen . Beautiful Pure white Fur like snow you had ..and even to the bitter end you never lost that beautiful white fur. That’s why I named you Sailor .. white like a white Sailor Suit. You were just the best . Always snuggled with me ... you always wanted to share your unconditional love and I always gave you my love back. You were such a strong boy and I have always been so proud of you. You were a great brother to your cat companions and Merlin and Big Jim miss you so much. They are walking around looking for you. We will all see you again in Heaven. I am so happy that you were part of all the ups, downs and in betweens of my life . I’m glad you touched so many other lives too. Colin misses you ! Everyone that met or saw you really liked you .. you were just very very special. I’ll always love you my sweet Sailor .
Love, your Mom Lesley
