“ *Samantha (Sam) was our 14 old Dalmatian she had helped me several time through out her life
Especially when I lost my parents a year ago she was loved she took every step I took (Even to the bathroom) even when she was dying she tried to crawl she was a very proud dog didn't won't any help getting on bed and etc .. her brothers she kept in place till she died she was the boss !! She will be missed so much and we will always love her hope my mom got her now in heaven she did love her*
