“ We got Samantha in 2003 from our Vet in Florida when she was about 1 year old. She had been surrendered by her former owner because the dog terrified her. She was alone in the cage and, when we approached her, she purred and rolled off the shelf. My husband fell in love with her at that moment and said that we had to bring her home. For 19 years, she was the joy of our lives. She got along with everyone, and she was the kindest, most loving kitty ever.
