

Shadey Corn

September 29, 2025

Shadey was four when she came to live with me she was my son's dog and I inherited her the day he passed away she was my last link to him and she lived for 12 more years she was my heart and soul and I'm so lost without her. I believe with all my heart they are together now happy and whole and I'll see them both again one day

Tribute Wall

JC

“ Shadey was four when she came to live with me she was my son's dog and I inherited her the day he passed away she was my last link to him and she lived for 12 more years she was my heart and soul and I'm so lost without her. I believe with all my heart they are together now happy and whole and I'll see them both again one day

Jackie Corn - October 09, 2025 at 06:32 PM