“ Mt Bestest baby girl— momma loves and misses you sooooo much!!! Life will never be the same without you— but little moss angel is diffantely your raisin. She makes your rounds and has taken your chair as her own as well as your blanket. I call angel sheeba so much by accident— she acts more and more like you every day. We love you and hope you are living your best in that beautiful garden. So thankful you are not in pain anymore- wish We could have kept you longer here on earth but god needed you to play with all those babies in heaven...

“ My Bestest Babygirl, its been one year ago today sense I got my last kiss and hug from you! We miss you so much.. has been a hard year on us all. My days sometimes are still crazy, momma working again so havent been spending all my time with Angel and Tinker, so dont be jealous.. santa brought everyone new beds for christmas and Angel has taken your roll in sharing and running the roost.. I love you my sweet Sheeba, and miss you. Kiss kiss.. see ya one day soon!!!!

“ Its your favorite time of the year!! Cold winter days and Christmas is almost here, we miss you every day. Angel is still getting adjusted sometimes she will just go to your spot under the tree and lay for hours or your spot in front of heater and stay there for a long time.. Tinker lays on your spot on the couch.. This year has been a very bad year for us— you being gone has made it harder, I still havent got the lights and tree up, no Christmas pics this year— Momma has had to go to work this year so not alot of play time or outside for angel and tinker.. I miss you so much and so does daddy... we still are lost without you momma loves her babygirl - dont forget your prayers.. nite nite

Hey babygirl— alot has gone on this year— I have tried to be strong for Angel and tinker, Tonight I started unpacking Christmas decorations/- I know your favorite time of the year—

Angel went to smelling everything and because your scent is on everything she shied down and went to licking me like crazy in face on arms and legs— i told her i miss you to, then she goes to bedroom and wont come back out... i dont know if i should continue to unpack decorations or not??? Ive cried all evening I miss you so much— sheeba you was my world for 20 years .. we had a bond you and i could talk without words just body language.. imma supposed to be so strong cause imma momma— but imma so far from that— momma is lost and miss you every day so much more than you know—. Tinker will be joining you soon— hes wore out and tired .. life is crazy!!!

Sheeba Lucy Brown Momma loves and misses you so much every day — but i am so grateful that you are not in that horrible pain anymore and you are playing ball with the angels of god.. thats what keeps me going my babygirl..

You sleep good and have fun !!! We love you!! Ill talk to you soon before christmas 😊😊😊😊😊. Good night and dont forget your prayers

“ Oh my sweet bestest baby— momma loves and misses you so much.. our home is so quiet and lonely without you.. Angel misses her momma and best friend, she lays on your spot on the floor most of the time now and isnt eating like she should but shes trying.. Tinker, well hes Tinker, getting kn couch in your place for a few then, trading off to your chair for the night , hes scattering the food for you but only cleans half of his mess up, still waiting on you to do it, hes been sleeping way more than normal but hes going to be ok.. Daddy misses you so so much, he always looks at your spot.. He Burned the leaves today and we cut grass, so so hard not having your right there walking with us and we missed you bringing us the sticks..

Going to bed now love you !! Belly Rub ooo belly rub!! Kiss kiss.. come to bed when you get ready.. momma loves you nite nite

“ She loved people, Boat Rides, RZR rides, truck rides.. going anywhere or no where.. Loved to play Ball and Frizzbe when she was younger and swimming anywhere anytime. She especially liked snuggling.. and loved her bacon treats or egg on toast. She really liked helping to check trout-line. Always happy go lucky even in her older days, would make sure she walked from room to room til the house was awake at 330 every morning for past two years.. lol no sleeping late. She loved us as much as we love her.
