“ I remember the day I watched Snoopy a few years ago. I took him outside to pee & he pulled me clear down the ramp in my wheelchair lol. He was running everywhere & so happy just to be outside. He loved the outdoors. The last time I saw him was when I went to visit my son & daughter in law last July 2020. Knowing I can't see him again hurts really bad. He was a great dog & he'll forever be in my heart. I love you so much Snoopy!!!

“ Snoop Dogg Ross 11/9/2005 - 11/12/2020

Also known as Snoopy, and my best friend of 15 years. I knew from the moment dad brought you home in his hoody pocket, that you'd be my partner in crime. You've taught me so many lessons, and you grew up with me. Through my journey into adulthood you belonged by my side -with getting married (and being the cutest groomsmen) to lots of traveling! You've made such an impact on my life that will last forever. You've helped me grow into a better person. You've helped me through dark times in my life. I could never thank you enough for being the most amazing best friend I could ever ask for.

My precious boy loved foods he shouldn't have, long walks, tug of war, kisses, Damian, naps and playing chase. His #1 dislike: baths.

I love you Snoopy. Nothing will ever feel the same without your presence. You were very much loved and will be missed every day. I wish we could've had another 15 years together.

“ Snoop was more than a “Dog”, he was family. He was a friend and honestly got me through some hard times. It is hard to put into words how much I miss you buddy. Everyone that came in contact with snoopy seemed to be drawn to him and I totally understand why. His calm demeanor and fantastic attitude (besides when he was being old and moody) were infectious. It is weird and as a matter of fact empty to come home and not have you greet me. Even in your older years you produced the strength to greet me and that made more of an impact then I could ever explain. I love you snoop and I know that you are snapping into all the slim Jims you can find in doggie heaven! You brought me more joy and friendship than I ever thought, we came a long way from seeing each other in passing and I’m glad I ended up having you in my life. Thanks for everything snoop you will always be missed and I will always talk you up because you deserve it! ❤️❤️
