“ From What I know of Snowbear Stories , My favorite is where he made a hole under the house in the air conditioner venting to have a private vent on himself under the house: } He loved the cold air. He was a special snow doggie .

other funny story- He also loved to mark his territory on anything standing still.

Karen used to laugh at how many things he could pee on if given the chance.

I think their was a repair man that Karen had to save once.

Im going to remember all the funny happy stories that made him unique.

He was loved by us all. And will continue to be loved in the happy memories he made with Karen.

Thanks Jerri! And never forget the times he opened his own canned dog food! He was a real character and made me happy every moment he was in my life.

“ I miss this dog very much. I enjoyed running with him and he has a place in my heart. I know he was smiling at me a couple of times. Truly a dogs dog.

“ To my beautiful, blue-eyed boy. I was so blessed to have you in my life. I know you're in Heaven bringing smiles to everyone you meet. I miss you Snowbear and can't wait until the Lord brings us together again. I love you.

Snowbear was Corky's best buddy and he will miss him terribly the next time we visit. Snowbear was a wonderful, sweet boy, full of love and playfulness. He was always friendly, lovable and a terrific goofus and made one laugh! He will be missed so much by his mom and all who knew him, especially Tonnie and Corky. We love you Snowbear and we will all catch up with you later.

I really wish I got to meet Snowbear, you always talked about him so lovingly. I am so, so sorry for your loss, I share your pain. Hopefully all our fur babies are together waiting for us and know how much we will love them always.

Thanks for letting me see this to read about the love that Snowbear gave and received. Although I've only seen pictures, I ask who wouldn't fall in love with those beautiful blue eyes? I feel sad for you and your other animals to lose such a special member of your family. There is never an easy way to lose a pet and friend, and one can never be replaced by another; but just as the Lord sent you Snowbear, may He one day send you another animal for you to love that needs and loves you in return.
