

Sookah Lincoln

"14 years was all of the forever we could have.

Sookah lived a very full life, cheating death on more than one occasion.

Sookah was born in Montgomery and her original name was Annie. My Aunt had her for 2 weeks before giving her to me when she was 10 weeks old. And that's when our story began.

We started life in an apartment, living upstairs. To a short girl like Sookah, they were more like a jungle gym. We then moved into our family home where she had a big back yard to play in with her brother Marley. They escaped together, came home together, ate, and slept together. They were inseparable!

Years later we moved again (for her 4th move) and that's where we called home for 3 years. That was 2 years after she got ran over and 2 years before her battle with Pyrometra.

Sookah was the strongest, most determined, caring, and loving girl I ever could have asked for and saying goodbye has absolutely broken me.

I know she's up in heaven now, running with Marley and getting all the loves from my family. And most of all, she isn't fighting anymore!" - Kati Lincoln
