

Stella Mercer

"All the years combine
They melt into a dream."

Stella was our dog, friend, family member, companion, and just a plain good ole hunting buddy. Stella overflowed with unconditional love. She cared not what you do, what you have, what you look like, only that you loved her back. There is a partnership between a hunter and his retriever that has no equal.

"There's nothing you can hold
For very long"

Stella was intelligent, fearless, and above all loyal. She loved to go out when others shy away, when conditions are harsh and comforts are few. Stella knew nothing of trophies only that I was happy and that made her happy too. I remember her first retrieve. I vividly remember her last retrieve. She was the impossible machine.

"It seems like all this life
Was just a dream."

All the 1034 retrieves combine, all that's left is a dream. May all the dreams remain in our hearts forever. Now she waits with other friends of man, her body has healed, her health renewed. Happily waiting for us to be together again, and replace the sadness we felt while apart, with the love and joy that is always been in our hearts. Stella Blue Jubilee you are the most wonderful animal I have been graced to know.
