“ Stormie (AKA Baby Kitty) was the sweetest cat in the world. When we first met her at the pound, she purred the entire time. She purred her way into our hearts ❤️ She was fun, hyper, cuddly. She even inspired my sons first word (cat) She was deeply loved by everyone in the family and she really helped pull us all together. Losing her has been devastating. It's been a week and I still cry daily. Her memory and remains will be cherished and she will be forever missed and greatly loved. RIP Stormie Anne Barraza AKA Baby Kitty ❤️❤️
