“ Tito was my first baby, he was a very energetic and fun cat. He really loved going outside and going on walks, an believe it or not loved car rides too.

This was a very heartbreaking experience to go through; I was really not expecting this to happen so soon, only had 4 years, but it was the best 4 years I could have asked for. Tito helped me so much and whenever I came home he would be the first to great me at the door wanting to cuddle and be pet. Tito was a very loved and spoiled cat, he really got to live life to the fullest, well as much as I could give him anyways, I can only hope he felt the same.

Most people say cats are not like dogs and they only love you when they want to, but Tito was different. He had so much love for anyone and everyone, he could tell if you were sad and would want to lay with you until you started feeling better.

I wish he was still around, but I understand he was suffering and I am glad I got to be with him until the end.

Love you Tito~
