“ Trouble was my baby, my little shadow that followed me everywhere I went at home, even at 14 yrs old he never lost his “kitten”, always playful and so so loving, we went through some good and bad times together I could always count on him to cheer me up, he was preceded in death by his dog brother and sister, first little bit his big sister, then most recently his big brother Bigboy the 100 lb bull mastiff that adored him, now they are all together waiting on me, I'll never forget him and will be looking for him when it's my time, I Love You Trouble

Your Daddy ❤️🐾🐾
