“ Wiley was the most amazing dog we've ever owned. Between my husband and myself, we've had two dozen dogs in our lifetime and while we loved them all, not one was as special as Wiley. He was a rescue (the best kind of dog) and rewarded us with nearly 10 years of unconditional love and constant entertainment. Wiley was loyal, devoted, loving, and more human than most people we know. He was my husband's constant companion through work, play, fishing, cooking, napping, and reading the paper. His antics were legendary with our friends--he would sing along with my husband on the harmonica, do virtually anything for bacon, assumed all gift bags were for him, and was liable to steal your cocktail if you left it unguarded. Our family is heartbroken over this sudden loss. He died of congenital heart problem we didn't know about. At the time of his death, the vet said his heart was three times larger than normal. No surprise to us.

I realize that in all likelihood, no one else will read this page, but a dog as special as Wiley deserves a tribute, even if it is just by his family. We were blessed to have been his caregivers for his time on this earth and if there is a doggie heaven, our sweet boy is there.
