“ WOOTY, I came to see you today but Nan said you went to Heaven to see your best friend Sadie Marie and papa. I tried to find you several times today and I hugged and kissed Nan when she cried for you today . I will miss rubbing your head. ❤️U

“ My precious WOOTY loved to ride in the car. It was unusual for us to go get her a Jacks chicken breast everyday. After her Papa passed 2 years ago she never left my side. My baby is now running in Heaven with Papa but I am lost with her. Thank you for the 13 years of Love you gave me. R I P my baby girl. I love and miss you with all my Heart and the tears still flow. One day we will be together again never to part. ❤️
