“ Zoe was the best damn dog I ever had. 15 years that she and I were together. We traveled together and went out to eat together, any one that knew me also knew Zoe. She had her own instagram for the love of god. She was the best and she will never be replaced. There is no way in four hells to ever replace her, She was sassy, salty and didn't like to snuggle strangers unless she decided too, on her terms only. We were the same, basically she loved to snuggle me and I loved to snuggle her. I miss her terribly, and will forever. RIP sweet girl
Run free, go find Deliah, Maddie's pupper that crossed a few years before you. I am sure that the two of you will have great fun. I miss you and will love you forever.

“ Zoe girl you were one of the most loved babies I've ever known. I wish I would have gotten to hang with you more but I so enjoyed your birthday at that fancy rehab your mommy did a stent in. You were and always will be loved by so many. Have fun running with your homies at the rainbow bridge, babygirl! Until we meet again ❤️

“ I never got to meet Zoe in person, but I've watched her over the years bring so much happiness and sass to her dog momma! I hate I missed her quince-esta this past year, but it was evident she was well loved.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Zoe was a beautiful girl and it looks like the two of you had many adventures. I know the pain is very difficult right now, but in time, you will be filled with such joy as you remember all the good times you had with her. Beth Mannino
